DETAILED ACTION

The preliminary amendment filed 12/4/2003 has been entered. Claims 31-34 are pending and under current examination.

Priority

This application is a continuation of Application No. 09/642,405, now U.S. Patent 7,001,995.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Art Unit: 1633

Claims 31-34 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-14 of U.S. Patent No. 7,001,995. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because instant claims are obvious variants of the cited claims.

Claims of the cited patent are drawn to a synthetic polynucleotide comprising a nucleotide sequence encoding a codon-optimized HPV16 protein, wherein the instant claims are drawn to a method of using such for inducing an immune response (vaccination). In view of the teaching of the specification, there is no unobvious step in the process, and the method of inducing an immune response flows directly from the intended use recitation in the preamble of claim 13 of the cited patent.

Accordingly, instant claims and claims of the cited patent are obvious variants and co-extensive.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 31 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 31 is vague and indefinite because of the recitation, "between 1ng and 100mg of a composition comprising a synthetic polynucleotide". A composition contains more than one component, it is unclear which component the quantity refers to, and thus the metes and bounds of the claim are uncertain.

No claim is allowed.
